

Ref No. T26/48/2/002

Date Digitised: 04/10/2019

the secret fall of constance wilde

thomas kilroy

The Secret Fall of Constance Wilde
Thomas Kilroy

previews 3 october opens 8 october 1997

director Patrick Mason designer Joe Vanek
lighting Nick Chelton movement director David Bolger

cast includes

Constance Wilde is played by Jane Brennan, Oscar by Robert O'Mahoney and Douglas by Andrew Scott. The cast also includes Muirne Bloomer, Eric Lacey, Kevin Murphy, Ciara O'Callaghan, Jonathan Shankey, Jack Walsh.

Moving, disturbing and unnervingly funny, this is a vivid and at times nightmarish vision of a tragedy which has, until now, been so often overlooked: the story of Constance Holland-Lloyd's marriage to Oscar Wilde. In his new play Kilroy shows two people locked in a marriage of opposites, exposing the truth behind this most extraordinary of modern relationships.

The Secret Fall of Constance Wilde shows Constance battling with her own demons, the secrets of her past, until she finally learns that "when one sups with the gods, one must pay the full price of admission"

Performance times - Monday to Saturday - 8.00pm
Saturday matinees - 2.30pm

Booking - +353 (1) 87 87 222

Ticketshop - + 353 (1) 45 69 569 (24 hours)

Tickets - £8.00, £12.00 and £15.00 Monday to Saturday

Matinees and previews - £8.00

Students, Equity members and Irish senior citizens resident in Ireland

(on presentation of appropriate identification)

- £6.00 Monday - Thursday and Saturday matinees

HARVEYS
BRISTOL CREAM

The Arts Council
An Chomhairle Ealaíon

The National Theatre
THE ABBEY

