OEDIPUS

IN A VERSION BY W.B. YEATS

Sophocles' King Oedipus in this version for the modern stage by W.B. Yeats is universally regarded by generations of scholars and theatregoers alike as a masterpiece of tragic drama. Oedipus, searching for the cause of the plagues and famines that have cursed the city of Thebes over which he rules, finds himself in the relentless pursuit of his own truth woven in an unbroken crescendo of tragedy.

This Druid production is directed by Frank Conway, designed by Joe Vanek with lighting design by Roger Frith. The cast includes Marie Mullen as Oedipus, Malcolm Douglas, Michael Ford, Ena May, Ger Ryan, Michael O'Sullivan, Kate Thompson and Michael Shannon.
