It is Midsummer's Eve and passions are running high. Miss Julie has behaved rashly, and is about to commit an even more unthinkable act. Her father's valet, Jean, sees the danger but is powerless to avoid it. As the night wears on, it becomes clear that something terrible will happen.
.....

Following Edward Albee's The Goat and David Harrower's Blackbird, Landmark presents another explosive masterpiece. Written over a century ago, and brought vividly to life in Frank McGuinness' thrilling version, Strindberg's portrayal of power, class struggle and the strength of sexual desire is, one of the great classics of world theatre.

The multi-award-winning cast includes DECLAN CONLON as Jean, MARY MURRAY as Kristin, and CATHERINE WALKER as Miss Julie.

'an amazing play that still terrifies with its insoluble equation of sex, class and death'
